

WORLD BOOK DAY 2023

Dear Parents and Carers

This year, World Book Day is on Thursday 2nd March 2023 and students have voted to dress up as either a character from a book, or an author of their choice for the day.

If they are dressing up and have PE on that day, they can still wear a costume, but please be mindful that they will still do PE. They do not need to bring their full PE kit, but please make sure that they bring trainers.

If your child would like to dress up, but it is difficult for you to provide a costume, please either write a note in their diary or email their tutor and we will do our best to help find a costume for them.

If your child does not want to dress up, then please send them to school in their school uniform as usual.

Throughout the day, students will be taking part in fun activities around books and World Book Day, exploring the joy and adventure that reading can bring. Students may be involved in some creative storytelling, a visit by a local author and even a book related scavenger hunt!

We hope to have an inspiring and fun-filled day of celebrating reading and books together and are really looking forward to seeing students (and staff!) dressed up in their costumes.

Thank you, as always, for your support.

Jane Brown and the English Team.
